

Teacher of Economics and Business Studies

Padworth College, a co-educational boarding and day school for international and British students aged 14-19 years, is seeking to appoint a graduate to teach GCSE and A Level Economics and Business Studies, commencing September 2022. NQTs are welcome to apply. A firm commitment to working in a busy independent boarding school is essential.

We offer small classes sizes, with lessons delivered in a tutorial style and a teaching environment where the students are willing to learn and provide for an all-round enjoyable teaching experience.

We are happy to consider both a part-time and full-time appointment, with a teaching load of up to 24 hours per week.

Duties/Responsibilities

- Provide high quality teaching to create a vibrant and distinctive culture for learning for young people.
- Ensure all students are able to thrive and engage in both academic and vocational learning to achieve above and beyond their highest potential, whilst developing personal and employability skills.
- Plan and execute a diverse programme that meets individual learner needs within Psychology and Sociology.
- Assess, record and report on the attendance, progress, development and attainment of students whilst keeping electronic records as required.
- Ensure a high quality learning experience for students, which meets both internal and external quality standards.
- Prepare and regularly update subject materials.
- Use a variety of delivery methods, which will stimulate learning appropriate to student needs and the demands of the syllabus.
- Maintain discipline in accordance with the College's procedures, and encourage good practice with regard to punctuality, behaviour, standards of work and independent learning.
- Support and motivate students to allow them to grow and enhance their own skills.
- Ensure a safe, secure and healthy environment for students.
