

PADWORTH
COLLEGE

A pathway to excellence

Study Abroad Programme

Padworth College offers a unique educational experience and provides a stepping stone between traditional school education and university studies. Students are closely supervised and supported, but also learn how to study independently and to develop study skills that will allow them to thrive in a university environment.

- A strong focus on the development of independent learning to facilitate the transition from A Level to university
- A commitment to realising academic potential and finding the right career pathways for the individual
- Small class sizes (average 8-10)
- A diverse international community, with the student body made up of up to 30 nationalities
- A traditional British curriculum with a modern approach and global outlook
- A high level of contact between staff, parents, and students
- Personalised learning plans with regular testing, leading to focused target setting for each individual student
- Extensive sports and extra-curricular activities
- Excellent track record of placing students in leading UK universities

Padworth is set within an impressive 12 acres campus, close to the city of Reading and just 50 miles from central London. It is led by Lorraine Atkins, Principal, and is accredited by the Independent Schools Inspectorate (ISI) and the British Council.

"Padworth is a college that produces students who are independent, strong and passionate about their learning. The boarding provision supports the step-by-step support to independent living."

Lorraine Atkins, Principal
