

Principal – September 2025

Padworth College, a co-educational boarding and day school for international and British students aged 14-19 years, is seeking to appoint a Principal to take the College forward on the next stage of its journey. Providing purposeful leadership to enable all students and staff to excel, we are seeking a Principal to lead our drive on academic standards, as well as developing our unique proposition. A firm commitment to leading a busy independent boarding school is essential, living on site, within beautiful accommodation.

We are seeking someone who:

- has strong leadership, management and organisational skills.
- has excellent interpersonal skills.
- has a track record in whole school improvement.
- is a team player and can adapt to a small school's changing needs.
- has experience of working in a leadership position, within the Independent schools sector.
- has excellent experience of working with international and domestic (UK) students.
- has good boarding school knowledge, ideally with experience as a safeguarding lead.

Padworth College is set in 11 beautiful acres, 9 miles outside Reading. We provide a pathway to university for international and domestic students with small, tutorial style teaching and caring, pastoral support.

Padworth College is part of the Inspiring Futures Education group. For further details, please visit <https://www.ifedu.com>
